

EARTH TONES

Burnt hues and elemental forms to set the hearth aflame

Inspired by Alfredo Häberli's simple-yet-effective 'Artà' tiles, created for Mallorcan cement tile specialist Huguet, we set off on a quest to build our own equatorial retreat. The ochre palette, strong pattern and smooth finish of the tiles set the tone for the rest of our finds, which include a Walter Knoll rug inspired by the African desert; a monumental terracotta pedestal by Georgian outfit Rooms; sculptural metal coffee tables by Henge and Holly Hunt; and crackled glass vessels by Kengo Kuma for Lasvit. Taking centre stage is the 'Liberty' lounge by Dutch artist Joep van Lieshout, for Moooi. 'Artà' tiles, £131 per sq m, by Alfredo Häberli, for Huguet. 'Ronin Drink' table, price on request, by Holly Hunt. Oak flooring, with Dark Coco oil finish, from £105 per sq m, by Dinesen. For stockists, see page 169.

Terracotta pedestal, €5,000, by Rooms. 'Be Mine' coffee table, price on request, by Massimo Castagna, for Henge. 'Yakisugi' glass, £130; vase, £410, both by Kengo Kuma, for Lasvit. 'Sitawi' rug, £18,111, by Walter Knoll. 'Liberty' lounge, £7,007, by Joep van Lieshout, for Moooi. 'Artà' tiles, £131 per sq m, by Alfredo Häberli, for Huguet. 'Ronin Drink' table, price on request, by Holly Hunt. Oak flooring, with Dark Coco oil finish, from £105 per sq m, by Dinesen. For stockists, see page 169.
